PROFILE

I am a fullstack developer - a graduate from Le Wagon's web development bootcamp.

Proficient in Ruby, Javascript, Rails and React, I specialize in developing fullstack web applications. I am experienced in project management using Github and Trello, and I excel in collaboration and delivery. My background in sports studies enhances my leadership, communication, and teamwork skills.

I am seeking opportunities in health, physical activity, and sports-related projects, and am also open to exploring new technologies and ideas. Most importantly, I am excited to contribute to innovative and meaningful projects.

PROJECTS

FIXI

Sep 2023

- Designed and implemented an application where users can search for and contact home maintenance workers, such as plumbers, electricians, etc. developed using Ruby on Rails.
- Created a prototype of the app in Figma. Used Trello to manage different tasks and assign them to group members. Developed the application using Bootstrap, various Ruby gems, Git for version control and asynchronous collaboration. Finally, deployed the application using Heroku.

GROCERY SAVER

Aug 2023

- Designed and implemented a food sales application with a near expiration date, in one week, and with a group of two more students using Ruby on Rails.
- Developed the application using Bootstrap, various Ruby gems, Git for version control and asynchronous collaboration. Finally, deployed the application using Heroku.

HOSTERIA FFARM TAID

Dec 2022

- Created entirely by me, from the design in Figma to the deployment on a hosting platform.
- Developed a landing page for a lodge using React and created a responsive website using JavaScript and CSS.

PERSONAL PORFOLIO

Sep 2022

- Designed and developed my personal portfolio using React.
